

HANNIBAL JOURNAL.

DAILY.

VOLUME I.

HANNIBAL, MO.: WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1853.

NUMBER 3.

The Publisher of Scott's Weekly Peer.

The largest Family Journal in the United States, encouraged by the very liberal patronage bestowed upon his Paper for the last seven years, and believing that the great reduction of postage will materially aid in extending the circulation of the favorite family newspaper, has spared neither pains nor expense to make his popular journal still more worthy of public patronage. He has just put up a new steam-power printing-press, which was manufactured to order with an especial view to improve the mechanical appearance of the Paper. He has contracted with a new firm to furnish a better article of paper than has heretofore been used. It is to be manufactured on Fourdrinier's machines express for "Scott's Weekly Peer." He has decorated the Paper with entirely new type, new heading, and new vignette cuts, increased the width of the columns, and extended the size of the paper. It is now pronounced, by all who have seen it, to be the handsomest and cheapest paper in the Union. The contents of the paper will continue to be of the very highest order of excellence. Preparations have been made which enable the publisher to assure the public that it will never be behind with important news; and arrangements have been effected with some of the ablest writers in the country, both male and female, for a Series of First-Rate Stories on a variety of subjects, in which, however, incidents connected with the Revolution will constitute a prominent theme. These are now on hand original articles from the first writers in the United States, several of which are illustrated Nouvellettes, new feature—one that the publisher trusts will meet with the views of the reading public. The selected articles from foreign magazines are generally the very same which appear in the New York magazines, our weekly issues giving us great advantages in this respect.

Scott's Weekly Paper has won wide fame as an interesting and instructive family newspaper, devoted to all the interests of trade and business to light literature, and to the various matters which contribute to the formation of a complete family fireside companion, in which amusement and instruction predominate. Its original domestic stories have acquired for it a wide popularity, and, as a vehicle of the earliest news, it possesses a worth not exceeded by any other paper of its character in the United States. It publishes Valuable Recipes and Useful Hints for housewifery, cooking, preserving, cleaning furniture, &c., &c. It is a moral instructor for youth, and contains more really useful information than any other journal. Chronological tables of historical events, scintillations of history, biographies of distinguished men of the past and present century, valuable essays on important Scientific philosophic, and useful subjects, records of new inventions, &c., &c., form part of its regular contents.

Scott's weekly paper has reached a circulation unparalleled in the history of similar undertakings. It owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a better quality, in a more elegant style, and at a cheaper rate than any other publication; and that its literary and news contents have met the wants of the great mass of the American people, by combining interest, instruction, and amusement to a degree hitherto unequalled. Ever possible effort will be made to increase its merit in proportion to its constantly increasing circulation and success. It is only by publishing a very addition that a journal of the size and character of Scott's Weekly Paper can be afforded at its extremely low price, and this large circulation the publisher intends to maintain.

Harpers New Monthly Magazine.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE has already reached a regular monthly issue of more than 100,000 COPIES, and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The Publishers have endeavored, by a well-directed use of the abundant resources at their command, to render it the most attractive and most useful Magazine for popular reading in the world; and the extent to which their efforts have been successful is indicated by the fact, that it has attained a greater circulation than any similar periodical ever issued.

Special efforts will be made to render it still more interesting and valuable during the coming year. In addition to the usual ample and choice selections of Foreign and Domestic Literature, an increased amount of Original Matter, by the ablest American Writers, will be hereafter furnished. The number of Pictorial Embellishments will be increased; still greater variety will be given to its literary contents; its Editorial and Miscellaneous departments will be still farther enlarged; and no labor or expense will be spared to render it in every way, and in all respects, still more worthy of the extraordinary favor with which it has been received.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a BETTER quality, in a MORE ELEGANT style, and at a CHEAPER rate, than any other publication.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail for three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, either of the Publishers, the Booksellers, or Periodical Agents.

What can be got for Five Dollars!!

The undersigned has entered into an arrangement, by which they agree to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, (monthly,) the Home Journal, (weekly,) and the Musical World and Times, (weekly,) to new subscribers, at the very moderate price of five dollars a year for the three publications; all orders enclosing that amount to Dyer & Willis, will be promptly attended to.

SAMUEL HUESTON,

Publisher of the Knickerbocker.

MORRIS & WILLIS,

Publishers of the Home Journal.

DYER & WILLIS,

Publishers of the Musical World and Times,
257, Broadway New-York.

Grand Literary and Artistic Combination.

Arrangements have been made to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, the Home Journal, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year. This is a cheap literature, with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the 'Caloric' age, which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark, it is unnecessary to speak. For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy 'monthly' in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceded it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris and N. P. Willis, is well known as the best family newspaper in America; and the Musical World and Times, edited by Richard Storrs Willis, with Lowell Mason, Geo. H. Curtis, Thomas Hastings, Wm. P. Bradbury, Geo. F. Root, and other musical writers contributing; and which gives, among other things, over $25 worth of music and a full course of instruction in harmony annually, is the very best musical journal ever published. These three publications will post a family up in regard to everything worth knowing:—Art, Science, Literature; music, painting, sculpture; inventions, discoveries; wit, humor, fancy, sentiment; the newest fashions and other attractions for ladies; choice new music for the Sabbath, the church, and the firesides; reviews and criticisms of Musical Works, Performers and Performances; in short, the very pick and cream of Novelty, Incident, History, Biography, Art, Literature and Science; including whatever can be given in periodicals to promote Healthy Amusement and Solid Instruction in the family, and help to make it Better, Wiser, and Happier, may be now obtained for FIVE DOLLARS. Address DYER & WILLIS, 357 Broadway.

Prospectus to De Bow's Review.

Adapted to the Southern and Western States of the Union; including statistics of foreign and domestic industry and enterprise. Published monthly in New Orleans, at $5 per annum, in advance.

Complete sets of the work, ten volumes, bound handsomely, and for sale at the office, New Orleans, and will be supplied on order, deliverable in any of the large cities or towns. They are an invaluable repository of practical information regarding our country, and should have a place in every public and private library. A few sets only remain.

The Review is now rapidly growing in circulation, and will exhibit many great improvements in the coming year, in size, matter, and appearance. The following are its leading divisions:

I. LITERATURE.—Criticisms, essays, poetry, sketches of fact and fancy, summaries of foreign and domestic news, movements in New Orleans, &c.

II. COMMERCE.—Its history, laws and statistics; commodities, shipping, navigation, treaties, tariffs, exports and imports, trade of the South and West, home and foreign trade.

III. AGRICULTURE.—Discussion upon cotton, rice, sugar, tobacco, hemp, Indian corn, wheat, slavery and slave laws, &c.

IV. MANUFACTURES.—Progress of Manufactures in the South and West.

V. Internal Improvements.—Canals, Railroads, plankroads, general intercommunication South and West—in the Union and abroad.

VI. Statistics.—Complete tables upon all of the above heads—of population, resources, wealth, mortality, blacks and whites, &c.

Five Great Novelettes.—Great Attraction!!

Some five or six weeks ago, we announced that we would publish five first-class novelettes, written expressly for the "Dollar Newspaper." Four we had in hand at the time, and the fifth has since come into our possession. The first is now nearly half through, and has everywhere been pronounced a story of great merit. The following is the order of publication:—

The Emigrant Squire, by P. Hamilton Myers, Esq.; the Beauty and the Ghoul, by Robb, Esq.; the Beauty and the Ghoul, by Prof. J. H. Ingraham; the Bride's Bower, Anonymous for the present; the Mysterious Letter, by George Canning Hill, Esq.

Here is a series of stories by writers of acknowledged ability. No other paper has ever presented such a series. They will probably run through nearly half a year, and will be accompanied and followed by other shorter stories of equal merit. The proprietors mean that no other family paper shall excel it in useful reading. The best that money and industry can command shall be given.

Immense Edition.—The circulation of the "Newspaper" has increased within the last few weeks more rapidly than ever before; and that it may not lose its character of a news paper, by going to press a long time before its date, we have procured two Mammoth printing machines, capable each of twenty thousand impressions per hour. For the last two months we have been busily employed in getting them ready for use, and expect to have them ready for the next number of the "Newspaper." With our new presses we are also making preparations for a suit of new type, with which we hope to make the "Newspaper" in appearance all that we labor to have it in substantial matter; and all for one dollar per year to single subscribers, and at the following lower rates,

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.

Greatly increased in size, and improved in elegance and merit. Edited by Mrs. ANN S. STEPHENS, and CHARLES J. PETERSON. The great increase in the circulation of this Magazine for 1852, has determined the publishers to spare no expense for the ensuing year, in order still further to increase its list. He will therefore, add greatly to the number of pages, without, as other Magazines have done, decreasing the quantity or elegance of the embellishments. The price, too, will remain a dollar less than its cotemporaries. As the postage also, is less, he looks for 100,000 subscribers in 1853.

The fashions exclusively in this Magazine. This is now the only Magazine which publishes colored steel-plate fashions regularly. To each is added a full letter-press description, giving information on all the Latest-Styles, received direct from London and Paris. All who wish to know the real fashions, must take this periodical. In our Eastern cities, it is the only authority. To the dress-maker, milliner, etc., it is invaluable.

Most readable and original of the magazines. The literary department will be entirely original, instead of being made up, as are all the other magazines, of second-rate English stories. During the last two years, this magazine has been confessedly the best in the country for Ladies. It has published more brilliant tales and novels in that period, than all its cotemporaries together. During 1853, it will be better than ever. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, the best romance writer in America: the author of "Dora Atherton," and others, will contribute exclusively for 1853. The domestic stories for which this magazine is famous, will be continued from the pens of Ella
